GOODWILL MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER FOR EDUCATION ON THE OCCASION OF THE 2016 WASSCE

My dear Candidates of the 2016 WASSCE,

The West Africa Senior Secondary Certificate Examination (WASSCE), are with us again, and it is now your turn to write them.

I wish that you all raise your spirits and remain strong.

I encourage each one of you to do the best you can during the examinations and conduct yourselves in ways that are dignified.

Indeed, I have every confidence that you have applied yourselves diligently to your studies, have used your time judiciously and are now ready for these examinations, having prepared adequately.

I, therefore, urge you to conduct yourselves properly in accordance with the rules and regulations governing the examinations in order to enhance the credibility of outcomes.

I wish that you will cooperate with your supervisors and invigilators to ensure that the needed serene atmosphere is created and maintained throughout the period of the examinations.

Do accept my wishes for a successful event and very good results.

Very Sincerely,

SGD:

Prof. Naana Jane Opoku-Agyemang
Hon. Minister
